MATTISON B. JONES GIVES REPORT OF PROGRESS ON WASH AND IVANHOE BRIDGES.

Mr. Mattison B. Jones was requested for a report as chairman of the Committee on Bridges. He said that Supervisor Dodge had told him the day before that the plans for the bridge across the wash were working out correctly, but it would be a good plan to keep in close touch with those having the matter in charge until it is an accomplished fact.

In a word, Mr. Jones thinks it well to keep right on after it, and then keep on keeping on till the bridge crosses the wash and we can cross on the bridge.

As to the Ivanhoe bridge, the higher price of materials makes the first estimate and appropriation too small. The people near by cannot make up the difference. It might be well for Tropico and Glendale to co-operate in some plan to cover the deficit and hasten the beginning of the work. The idea is that if we fail to get the bridge now it would be some time before we could get up the present momentum.

Agitation plus enthusiasm, properly co-ordinated, with the right forces behind them will get that Ivanhoe bridge built without fail. A bridge to serve for five or ten years would probably find us in a position to get a better one—something like that at Pasadena.

It might be well for representatives from the Glendale Chamber of Commerce and the Brand Boulevard Association and other local associations to go after it—to supplement the efforts of Messrs. Toll, Veaelich and Jones, who have been working for it.

Mr. Baker—We need quite a lot of information as to type of bridge, cost, etc.

Mr. Jones—I would like to know what, if anything, Tropico and Glendale will do or not do, as I will probably have to state to the Supervisors that it is up to them.

Mr. Jones was duly authorized to add to his Bridge Committee such persons as he wished and report results to a meeting to be called later.

President Cowan stated that because Glendale is the center of population in the Seventh district, the Exemption Board ought to have headquarters here, if possible, and he asked Mr. Jones, secretary of the

FOR MARSHALL COUNTY FOLKS

On Friday evening, October 5, there is to be a special celebration in Billy Sunday's Tabernacle, in which many Glendale people will be particularly interested. That evening will be set aside as Marshall county (Iowa) night, and a section will be reserved for all who come from that county. Billy Sunday himself is a native of Marshall county and played his first baseball in Marshalltown. He was called from there by Captain Anson to Chicago, where he made his first appearance in professional ball playing in 1879. "Billy" is an enthusiastic Marshall county fan, and as the people from there have a strong and live organization in Los Angeles, to which a number of people from Glendale belong, an unusually interesting meeting is expected. Over a hundred former Marshall county folks now live in Glendale. These are requested to report at door No. 18 not later than 7 o'clock Marshall county night.

PARENTS, ATTENTION!

The first meeting of the G. U. H. S. Parent-Teachers' Association will be held Monday, October 1, at 3:30 p. m. in the high school cafeteria, Domestic Arts building. This meeting, the first of the year, is of great importance, and all parents and everyone interested are urged to come. The work for the year will be outlined and it is of the greatest importance that the parents, as far as possible, be present in order to co-operate intelligently in this most valuable relationship—the parent and the teacher.

KILL THE MOTOR POWER

The story is going the rounds of the city that Policeman Hollenbeck is so thoroughly devoted to enforcing the city motor ordinance that a few days ago a La Canada man left a team of donkeys at the curbing and one of the long-eared animals brayed. The policeman ordered the owner of the team to kill his engine when leaving his motor stand on the street, and especially to keep the muffler closed when driving within the city limits.

EXHIBIT OF RED X WORK

MRS. GEORGE D. CARTER'S COMMITTEE SHOWS ITS RESULTS

On Monday next at the Red Cross headquarters, 318 South Brand boulevard, there will be an exhibit of the work of several of the active committees of the local Red Cross Chapter. The large proportion of the exhibits are the scores of knitted articles produced by the 200-odd workers for Mrs. George D. Carter's committee. These garments have got to be sent away very shortly for they must reach the front in France or elsewhere before the rigors of winter.

Glendale ought to see these things. It would be an inspiration to many who are not quite doing all of their bit! It would be a stimulus to others to join in and help the Red Cross. It will be an encouragement to those who have devoted so much time and effort in the making of these knitted garments.

You are invited to call and see this exhibit on Monday afternoon, from two to five; and if you can bring an old (clean) bedspread it will be gratefully accepted by Mrs. Tuft's Committee on Surgical Dressings and will be made into absorbent surgical pads. Come and bring your friends.

MISS McCONNELL A BRIDE

The first wedding at the new First M. E. Church took place at 4:30 p. m. yesterday, when Miss Lila Delphine McConnell, the daughter of Mrs. David Henry McConnell, of 323 North Maryland avenue, Glendale, became the bride of Mr. Mills Butler Clapp, of Redlands. The Rev. B. Dudley Snudden officiated, and the double ring ceremony was used. Miss Margaret Lusby sang most beautifully "Because I Love You," by Cadman, accompanied by Mr. Ricksecker on the organ. The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was used for the entrance of the bridal party, and Mendelssohn's at the close of the ceremony, which was witnessed by the relatives of the bride and groom. The bride was gowned in traveling suit and hat of dark green, and carried pink roses. The altar was banked with ferns and flowers, and at the hour of the ceremony the sun's rays breaking through the great western window filled the church with a beautiful light and produced a lovely effect.

Mr. and Mrs. Clapp left last evening on the Lark train for the North, and upon their return will reside at Oak Glen, Redlands, Cal., where after November 15 they will be at home to their many friends.

During the past week Miss McConnell has been the honor guest at showers in Glendale and Los Angeles and is the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

GLEN EYRIE CHAPTER ACTIVE

The card party given by the Glen Eyrie chapter of the Eastern Star on Thursday evening at the Masonic Temple under the supervision of Mrs. W. Q. Roberts, was a marked success. The proceeds, over $50, are to be given to the Red Cross. The ladies' first prize was won by Mrs. A. M. Richardson, and Mr. Wilbur McFadden won the men's. Consolation prizes were given to Miss Harriet Baggs and Mr. W. E. Welz. Those assisting Mrs. Roberts in the entertaining were: Mrs. A. W. Tower, Mrs. Lawrence Ellis, Mrs. E. U. Emery and Misses May Cornwell and Fredonia Borthick and Mr. Pulliam. Delicious refreshments were served and all voted it a very enjoyable as well as a profitable evening. The help of the Eastern Star members who donated money or refreshments and all those who in any way contributed to make this occasion a success is very much appreciated.

MRS. THAYER TO SPEAK

Mrs. Mary Gridley-Braly, regent of Gen. Richard Gridley chapter, D. A. R., has just received word from Mrs. Maynard Force Thayer of Pasadena, who has been spending the summer in the North, that she has returned home and will give the address at the opening meeting of the local chapter, which is to be held next Thursday, October 4, at the home of Mrs. Braly. Mrs. Thayer will speak on "War Relief," and Mrs. Braly is delighted to have secured such a distinguished and charming speaker for the occasion. She is hoping that every member will avail herself of the privilege of hearing Mrs. Thayer. Mrs. Braly requests that every member bring with her a list of the things she has knitted for the Red Cross the past summer.

U. OF C. CHEMISTS INVESTIGATE TUBERCULOSIS CURE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SACRAMENTO, September 29.—Special investigations being carried on by expert chemists at the University of California in an endeavor to find a new and effective cure for tuberculosis have reached that state where inoculation of human beings to test a new form of serum is being made, according to a report of the Committee on Scientific Research of the State Council of Defense just made to Governor William D. Stephens, chairman of that body. Taurine, the new serum which is hoped will prove both a cure and a preventative for tuberculosis, is extracted from abalones and a new process for the extraction which is said to be much more rapid has just been perfected. The report states that a considerable supply of taurine is now being collected and prepared for an exhaustive study of its effects in tuberculosis treatments in humans.

ANNUAL STUNT EVENT

FACULTY AND BOYS OF G. U. H. SCHOOL ENGAGE IN ATHLETIC SPORTS ON SCHOOL GROUNDS

The annual "stunt party" given by the boys of the G. U. H. S. was held Friday evening on the high school grounds, and was conducted by the boys of the school themselves, some 300 in number. Milton Brown, president of the senior class, was the chairman of the committee in charge and Leseuer Gower was the chairman of the sports committee. Berna Martin had the important duty of furnishing the "eats." Principal George U. Moyse and Vice Principal Harry L. Howe had personal supervision over the whole affair, assisted very actively on the grounds by the following men teachers: Professors Clark, Davis, Mayhurst, Houdyshell, Joy, Richardson and Root. It goes without saying that the celebration was a "howling success," a number of megaphones assisting in the matter. The program, which was given before a large audience, began with boxing matches and sack races. Then came the tug of war, with the juniors and freshmen victorious after a desperate struggle at their end of the great 150-foot cable, against the seniors and sophomores. In the new game of push ball, refereed by Mr. Hayhurst, the new physical director, the juniors and freshmen were again the victors, with twenty-two men on each side. This game is played with a huge inflated rubber ball, eight feet in diameter, and is a most interesting one to witness. The boys rented it from a sporting house in Los Angeles, but were obliged to go to San Pedro after it yesterday, as it was in use there, serving as very active amusement and exercise for the militiamen stationed there. The grounds were illuminated during these activities by huge searchlights which played from the roof of the mechanical arts building. These lights were constructed and operated by the boys themselves. After the field games refreshments, consisting of "wienies," buns and coffee and watermelon, were served in the school cafeteria by the committee. It is plain that these were much enjoyed when it is known that three-fourths of a ton of watermelon rapidly disappeared. After supper and singing around a huge bonfire the evening ended about 11 o'clock in a parade.

COMMUNITY CONCERT

High School Tonight

Mr. Blake Franklin and the choir of the Congregational church will have charge of the program this evening. That insures success. This will be the fifth of the series of Glendale's community concerts, in which public interest is steadily increasing, as more singers are taking part. There will be "singing school practice" on popular songs from 7:30 to 8, when the regular concert will begin. People who have engagements after 8 o'clock might attend the practice singing and depart without being discourteous. One object of these community concerts is to get together as many Glendale singers as may be, and as each concert has a different leader, under the auspices of some particular association, perhaps in good time nearly all the Glendale singers will be lending a voice when they come. Rev. Mr. Willisford, pastor of the Congregational church, will give a short talk on community singing at the concert this evening.

The public is invited. There will be free books and song sheets for the use of all.

BRALYS RETURN FROM SANTA MONICA

Mr. and Mrs. John Hyde Braly returned Friday from a delightful visit of two weeks at the home of Mrs. Braly's daughter, Mrs. Kirk, in Santa Barbara. They were accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Braly and small daughter, Mina, of Pasadena. They made the trip in the Braly limousine and experienced delightful weather, although they found it warm as they neared home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Braly were honored guests at several social affairs while in Santa Barbara. They were invited to dinner at the home of the brother of Luther Burbank, and inspected the experimental gardens where Mr. Burbank carries out the ideas evolved by his illustrious brother. They were guests of honor at a dinner given by Mrs. Mark Bradley, former regent of the D. A. R., and Mrs. Kirk also entertained for her guests.

They found Santa Barbara delightful in every way. Eastern people of wealth are coming there and building magnificent homes. Mr. and Mrs. Kirk have purchased a beautiful home there. The climate leaves nothing to be desired.

PHYSICAL DIRECTOR

HAYHURST WILL REVIVE ATHLETIC SPIRIT IN SCHOOL—FOOTBALL INTRODUCED

The new physical director at the G. U. H. S. has arrived—an event of great importance in high school life. Mr. N. C. Hayhurst comes to Glendale fresh from a successful year as superintendent of the Playground Commission for the city of Fresno, and had charge also of the course in playground work at the Normal school there. He is a graduate of the University of Arizona, where he specialized in physical training work. Mr. Hayhurst is full of enthusiasm for his work, and already has many plans for the athletic program of the coming year at the high school. And by athletic work he says he does not mean only the games and contests of the boys naturally inclined to athletics, but he lays very special stress on the fact that a physical director's work has to do with the upbuilding of those who need physical improvement. Corrective and constructive physical training for the weaker and lighter weight boys, in fact, is of great importance. Also he hopes to be able to improve the gymnasium equipment, which is really inadequate for so rapidly growing a school as Glendale has. Mr. Hayhurst is filled with the idea of public service, and would like to see a fine, fully equipped gymnasium in Glendale, open to the public at all hours. In playground work, too, his experience and splendid ideas could be of great help to the public here.

The board of trustees has given the boys permission to play football under Mr. Hayhurst's direction, with the following very wise restrictions which will be approved by all: Each boy must have his parents' consent in writing before he will be allowed to play. Also he must show a doctor's certificate pronouncing his heart and lungs sound and stating that he is otherwise in every way physically able to participate. It is too late this year for the G. U. H. S. to enter a league, as they have already been formed for this season, but several games are already scheduled, though Mr. Hayhurst says that the boys will need four or five weeks of training before being ready for any outside games.

Another new and commendable health precaution in connection with high school athletics has been provided by the members of the board. All boys who wish to take part in athletics must sign a paper signifying that they do not smoke or use intoxicating liquor in any form. This signature is in no way compulsory excepting in so far as it is necessary for the boy's participation in school athletics and sports—and what is school to a boy without sports? When it comes to out of door fun or cigarettes there will be little hesitation in choice for the boys.

Mr. Hayhurst is very much awake to the interests of the boys themselves and their viewpoint as well as their physical welfare, and will most assuredly have a successful year. Mr. and Mrs. Hayhurst are now living at 524 South Jackson street.

GLENDALE NIGHT AT THE TABERNACLE

Positive word has come from Miss Whitbeck, the sole person in charge of the locating parties and delegations in the Sunday Tabernacle, that 1000 reservations were made for the Glendale and Tropico district for Thursday evening, October 4th. Tickets for adults and children in the hands of all the co-operating local pastors or committees of their churches. The tickets are good going or returning on any train on that day. All commuters will pay an additional fare from 6th street to 12th in Los Angeles and return to 6th street. We want as many people from this district as possible to go by trolley so as to hold the crowd together. Take an unsaved friend along. Take your hymn book. We want to boost things for this entire district and do great things for God.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1917

MANY VISITORS TO THE NATIONAL FORESTS

That a larger number of people than ever before visited the National Forests of California this summer was a statement made by Luther Whiteman of the Forest Service at the Pan-Pacific Conference in San Francisco the other day.

"Although complete reports from the Forest Supervisors have not yet been received, there is data at hand for estimating that at least a million travelers, campers and sportsmen visited the 18 National Forests in California for recreation purposes this season,—the greatest number visiting the Forests of this State in the history of the Forest Service. The automobile traffic was particularly heavy, and a comparatively large proportion of those traveling in automobiles came from other states."

The increased popularity of the National Forests for recreation purposes was credited in part by Mr. Whiteman to the advertising of the wonders and beauties of California's mountains by the Forest Service, and to the distribution of thousands of maps, posters and handbooks informing the public just where to go and what to see. The construction and improvement of roads and trails and the excellence of fishing and hunting conditions in most of the Forests, due largely to the protection given the game by the Forest Rangers, is also responsible for a large number of visitors, it was said. The opportunities to acquire without red tape and at low cost long term leases of land in the Forests upon which summer homes and permanent camps may be constructed also serve to bring many people into the mountains who would not otherwise come. In the Angeles National Forest alone more than 700 permits have been issued for summer home and permanent camp purposes. Lots that have been surveyed by the Forest Service on the shores of Huntington Lake, Lake Tahoe and along the Feather River Canyon are also in great demand. The renting of larger tracts by churches, clubs, schools and municipalities for recreation uses is also becoming popular in California. The playground commissions of three of the largest cities in the State have acquired lands for this purpose, and the playground commissions of other cities have this project under consideration.

WESTERN STATES IN RED CROSS WORK

The Western States are giving their share of energy and experience to the personnel of the national administration of the American Red Cross. And Western business and professional men are conspicuous in the Commissions which the Red Cross has sent from America to the most sorely stricken nations of Europe.

Every region in the West is represented by a man, nationally prominent because of his broad experience and unusual degree of success, who fills some place on the national staff for which he is peculiarly fitted.

One of the men from the Pacific coast at National Headquarters is Harry Thomas Cory, of San Francisco, who startled the engineering world in 1907 by diverting the Colorado River from running into the Salton Sea, thus reclaiming a large amount of land. He has been Professor of Engineering in several Western universities, and has been consulting engineer on a number of Western railroads.

Marshall Hale, Manager of the Pacific Coast Division, with headquarters in San Francisco, is head of the Hale Department Stores in San Francisco and other Western cities. In the personnel of the American Red Cross Commission to France is H. .O Beatty, of California, former Director of the War Relief Clearing House. The infant welfare unit of this Commission is headed by Dr. William Palmer Lucas, Professor of Pediatrics in the University of California, and Dr. Clain F. Gelston, his assistant at the University, is another member of this unit. L. D. Wishard, of Pasadena, Cal., is a member of the Commission.

John D. Ryan, a resident of Montana and one of the foremost mining men of the United States, is a member of the Red Cross War Council, by which all policies are formed and all expenditures authorized for Red Cross war work at home and abroad. Mr. Ryan has relinquished personal supervision of his vast mining, banking and railroad interests for the period of the war, to be in constant attendance at headquarters in Washington. A. R. Rogers, of Minneapolis, President of the Rógers Lumber Co., is Manager of the Northern Division.

Cordenio Arnold Severance, lawyer, of St. Paul, is head of the American Red Cross Commission to Serbia, which has just reached that country. Among the prominent men of the West in his Commission are Father Francis Jager, of the University of Minnesota, and Edwin D. Haskell, of Minneapolis. Mr. Haskell is Secretary to the Commission.

Dr. Julius Parker Sedgwick, physiological chemist and Professor at the University of Minnesota, is a member of the infant welfare unit of the Red Cross Commission to France. Todd W. Lewis, of Minneapolis, is in charge of one of the Red Cross warehouses which are being established in France by the Hospital Supply Service. Dr. William J. Kucera, of New Prague, Minn., is a member of the Medical Unit accompanying the Red Cross Commission to Rumania.

Dr. Livingston Farrand, President of the University of Colorado, is head of the Commission for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, which the American Red Cross conducts in France in co-operation with the Rockefeller Foundation. Dr. Farrand is also a member of the Medical Advisory Committee of the Red Cross Commission to France, and one of his associates is Dr. George W. Crile, head of the Cleveland Base Hospital Unit, and discoverer of a method of eliminating surgical shock which has already reduced mortality.

Joseph R. Hamlen, Assistant to the Vice-Chairman of the Central Committee, comes from Arkansas. He is general manager of the Arkansas mills of J. H. Hamlen & Son, Inc., manufacturers and exporters of lumber products, and his headquarters have been in Little Rock. At Red Cross Headquarters in Washington he has charge of the administration of the Vice-Chairman's office, and is head of the Bureau of Foreign Personnel.

George W. Simmons, of St. Louis, Vice-President of the Simmons Hardware Co., is manager of the Southwestern Division of the Red Cross, with offices in his home city. Henry Andrew Schmid, a native of Missouri and a prominent worker in municipal and government research, is a member of the Red Cross War Finance Committee. Dr. W. T. Lowe, of Pine Bluff, Ark., is in the Medical Unit of the Red Cross Commission to Roumania.

George Eaton Scott, of Chicago, vice-president of the American Steel Foundries, gives his full time to the American Red Cross at National Headquarters, as Director of the Bureau of Division Organization. He has charge of organization problems relating to the thirteen new Division offices, and deals with their inspection, reports and matters of policy.

The Glendale Evening News should be delivered at your home by the carrier not later than 4:30 p. m. every day except Sunday, and usually much earlier than that time. Subscribers who have not received their paper at 4:30 o'clock, should notify the office by phone: Glendale 132, Home 2401.

KERNELS OF SEED CORN TRUTH

If you plant corn from stalks that have suckers that is what you will raise. Like begets like. Select your corn seed from the stalk as it stands, so you will know its parentage.

Short, thick, storm-proof stalks with ears that grow low are the right kind for the Central and Southern states. Get your seed from such stalks because slender, top-heavy stands are likely to mean losses.

Seed ears from the best producing stalks in the field produce more than seed ears apparently as good, but gathered without considering the productiveness of the parent stalk. The place to select corn is in the field, not in the crib; the time to select it is as soon as it is mature, not at husking time.

Take seed corn from the best producing stalks as they stand thick in the field. Such seed is more likely to meet competition successfully than seed which comes from a stalk which stood alone and did not suffer from the crowding of its neighbors.

A MISTAKE CORRECTED

Rumor is going the rounds that the neighborhood prayermeetings under the direction of the Sunday campaign headquarters are to be discontinued after the first of October. This is a grave mistake, whosoever is responsible for this statement. They will continue as usual on Tuesday and Friday mornings with unabated earnestness and zeal. We do not want a breakdown of the united prayermeetings for the blessing of God upon the great work of the Sunday party.

Let it be understood it was announced that after October 1st the Sunday party would not continue their Wednesday morning services as usual in various localities.

"Checkerboard"

Did you ever see my checkerboard illustration of the philosophy of a 20-year Endowment? It can not be made very plain on paper, but this is the outline and I will be pleased to present it to you at any time. I say: "Would you like to increase your estate by $10,000 cash which will increase the value of all your other property because it will be available immediately at your death?" You say, "Of course I would." "Then, if you are 42 (or under) pay us 5 per cent. interest on $10,000 the first year, with a smaller interest rate the second, reducing each year so that the average will be about 4 per cent. for 20 years, and it is secured whenever needed. If you die at any time within the 20 years your estate has gained enormously, and if you are living then the Co. hands you the $10,000 cash."

I have never presented this to a business man but who admitted it to be the finest kind of a business proposition. A longer endowment for younger men is preferable because the interest rate is less and the net cost less, but the principle is exactly the same.

It is a most interesting subject. Don't hesitate to ask me—I love to talk about it.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

board, if its members had authority to move the headquarters here from San Fernando.

Mr. Jones—That power rests with the board. The way the headquarters happened to be located at San Fernando is this: The three members of the board—Mr. Wilson, Mr. Needham and myself—were "drafted" as really as any of the men. We were ordered by the government, without consultation or previous notice, to organize that board and get ready for exemption examinations, according to instructions furnished us. We did not know whether we had authority to rent rooms or incur other expenses. Neither Mr. Needham or I could give our whole time to it. Mr. Wilson, the chairman, offered his San Fernando offiice and his services, which were accepted. Mr. Needham afterwards was found to be ineligible, being a registered voter of Los Angeles, and Mr. F. D. Lanterman was appointed in Needham's place. Now that we know we could have clerks and an office, kept open in Glendale, the most convenient place for two members of the board and about three men out of four registered in the Seventh district, the problem is better understood. There is no reason why the Glendale Chamber of Commerce should not ask for the board to move to Glendale if it so wishes.

Mr. Sprowls—I move you, Mr. President, believing it is the wish of the city of Glendale and for its best interests, that the Chamber of Commerce invite the exemption board to come to Glendale, and tender them the Chamber of Commerce free of cost for their official headquarters.

The motion was seconded and unanimously carried.

President Cowan—Any honors or courtesies we can show the soldiers we owe them and should be given with all good will and enthusiasm.

He mentioned the entertainment for Monday evening.

Mr. Baker—I move that the president and secretary of the Chamber of Commerce be a committee to cooperate with other organizations to give publicity to the Red Cross reception next Monday evening, and that Chamber of Commerce members be urged to attend. Carried.

The meeting then adjourned to convene again at the call of President Cowan.

AMERICAN AIR-FIGHTRS SPROUTING WINGS IN FRANCE

AMERICAN FIELD HEADQUARTERS, France, Sept. 6 (by mail).—Tucked away in the obscurity of France where even the war news filters through several days late, Uncle Sam's fledgling air fighters are beginning to sprout their wings.

You will find them in two big French aerodromes—men of the army and navy and Americans of the French Foreign Legion who have temporarily expatriated themselves to learn flying.

The early bird man catches his coffee and rolls at 4:30 a. m., and from that time on until 10 o'clock at night—in good weather—his hazardous day is crowded with work and lectures and study.

The daily schedule calls for three hours' rest between noon and 3 o'clock. Sometimes a fellow gets a chance to sleep in this period, but more often he spends it propped up in his cot studying the whys and wherefores of the spiral spin.

Uncle Sam's own aviation field isn't an aviation field at all just now. Engineers are working there putting barracks and hangars or building the necessary railroad spurs with the aid of a band of complacent German prisoners. Pretty soon now, if the officials and the people at home come through with the material, this field will become one of the greatest aviation bases in the world. But the flyers can't wait, so they're learning with the French.

Take the army and navy men's school. These men were picked because of their unusual qualifications and sent over here to France to study flying with experienced French air fighters. Already one class of many men has graduated from the preliminary course of flying and passed on to the second course, where they will learn to handle the big machines which drop bombs and the fleet little craft that do the fighting.

Mingling with the American soldiers and sailors are other Americans in blue uniforms, the uniform of the Foreign Legion who flocked over here confident of learning somehow, somewhere, the flying game more quickly than they could at home. They will be ready with the rest when the time comes to fly before the American trenches.

POISONOUS GRASSES CAUSE DEATH OF STOCK

Numerous cases of poisoning of livestock from Johnson grass, and a few cases of poisoning from various members of the sorghum family, when eaten green, when stunted, or in the stage known as "second growth," have been reported to the Committee on Resources and Food Supply of the California State Council of Defense at Sacramento. No losses have been reported, however, from feeding grain heads, or sorghums fed as silage, dry fodder, or stover. Farmers can now obtain a circular telling how to prevent such difficulties and how to treat poisoned animals by writing to the College of Agriculture at Berkeley and asking for the publication on this subject by C. M. Haring, Professor of Veterinary Science in the University of California.

In the infrequent instances in which such poisoning of livestock occurs by green sorghum it is due to hydrocyanic acid, popularly known as prussic acid. Fortunately this poison forms only under certain conditions of growth and moisture, and is confined entirely to the green leaves.

Johnson grass, originally introduced into California as a forage plant, becomes a weed pest, common in most irrigated districts in California. There is no danger whatever, however, that the valuable forage crop, Sudan grass, will ever become a pest, since it is an annual plant and easily eradicated, as contrasted with Johnson grass, which is a perennial, with rootstocks which are extremely difficult to kill.

Animals poisoned by Johnson grass stagger or fall, the eyes are motionless, the heart-action is slowed, and the respirations are slow and convulsive. If the animal lives half an hour after the first symptoms have developed it stands a good chance of recovery.

When a forage crop contains Johnson grass or sorghum suspected of being in a dangerous stage, all danger can be avoided by cutting the crop and air-drying it before feeding it to the stock, or by turning the crop into silage. No sorghum fodder should be destroyed, since it can always be rendered harmless by being made into hay or silage.

Professor Haring's paper gives full directions for preparing an antidote for Johnson grass poisoning, and for administering the antidote and caring for poisoned cattle or sheep.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

No, George, our preacher does not perform physical gyrations when he preaches, but that does not mean that he is a dead one. He goes on the theory that it is not the movements of the feet but the working of the head that produces sermons that are worth while.

We shall hold all our services tomorrow. It was not necessary to turn people away last Sunday, but the attendance at the morning service beat a good average by a long way.

Yes, many of our people are attending the Tabernacle meetings. Some are members of the choirs, others are ushers, doorkeepers and secretaries, and the pastor is often in attendance.

A number of the popular Tabernacle songs will be sung at the evening service.

It presents the problem of conscience, the good in man, the spiritual presence and the human response. This intense drama of the soul should be heard by all.

At the morning church service the pastor will speak on "Haunted Houses." This service will be about one hour long, closing in time for all who desire to hear Mr. Sunday on "Booze, or Get on the Water Wagon," to do so.

CALIFORNIA'S PLEDGE TO PATRIOTIC SERVICE

To Be Made During the Week Beginning September 30, 1917

A suggested program for meetings to be held throughout the state during the designated week:

(a) In schools.
(b) In churches.
(c) By fraternal orders.
(d) By civic and commercial bodies.
(e) By women's clubs.
(f) By labor organizations, etc.

Wherever an organization may see fit it may vary the following program to conform to its own uses, ritual or customs.

1. The Governor's Proclamation. "To the People of California:

"The United States has now been at war with the German empire for nearly six months. In that time immense money aids have been given to our associates in the war, great armies have been raised and gigantic preparations have been made for our advance into the battle line itself. Soon the sons of America will be actively engaged in the struggle. At this solemn moment I call upon the people of California in all public gatherings and assemblies to renew in their hearts their pledge of patriotic devotion to our country and our flag; I ask them publicly to pledge to the nation and each other full and complete loyalty of service until this great trial has been brought to its successful issue. I further request them, as they gather at any time during the week beginning September 30, 1917, in their customary educational, religious and social organizations, to hold a brief service in which they will renew their pledges of loyalty and faith and will dedicate themselves to the great task we have undertaken. I especially lay upon every presiding officer of every school, church, club, labor union, fraternal order or other organization in the state, the duty of preparing and conducting such a service, at a meeting of his organization held during the week mentioned, to the end that all the people of California may solemnly unite in an expression of their loyalty to our government in this day of preparation for battle."

2. The Battle Hymn of the Republic.

(Unison singing of last stanza—all standing.)

"Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord; He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored; He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword: His truth is marching on."

(Chorus)

"Glory, Glory, Halleluah;
Glory, Glory, Hallelujah;
Glory, Glory, Hallelujah;
His truth is marching on."

3. Reading from the Pulpit or Platform.

Our Declaration of Independence asserted that:

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed."

At Independence Hall, in Philadelphia, on Washington's birthday in 1861, Lincoln said:

"It was not the matter of separation of the colonies from the motherland, but the sentiments in the Declaration of Independence which gave liberty, not alone to the people of this country, but hope to all the world for all future time. It was that which gave promise that in due time the weights would be lifted from the shoulders of all men, and that all should have an equal chance."

Our President said in his message to Congress on April 2, 1917:

"That right is more precious than peace, and we shall fight for the things which we have always carried nearest our hearts, for democracy, for the right of those who submit to authority to have a voice in their own governments, for the rights and liberties of small nations, for a universal dominion of right by such a concert of free peoples as shall bring peace and safety to all nations and make the world itself at last free."

In his address to the Russian people our President said:

"People: The brotherhood of mankind must no longer be a fair but empty phrase; it must be given a structure of force and reality. The nations must realize their common life and effect a workable partnership to secure that life against the aggressions of autocratic and self-pleasing power. For these things we can afford to pour out blood and treasure. For these are the things we have always professed to desire, and unless we pour out blood and treasure now and succeed we may never be able to unite or show conquering force again in the cause of human liberty. The day has come to conquer or submit. If the forces of autocracy can divide us they will overcome us; if we stand together, victory is certain and the liberty which victory will secure."

On Flag day President Wilson said:

"Woe be to the man or group of men that seeks to stand in the way in this day of high resolution when every principle we hold dearest is to be vindicated and made secure for the salvation of the nations. We are ready to plead at the bar of history and our flag shall wear a new luster. Once more we shall make good with our lives and fortunes the great faith in which we were born and a new glory shall shine in the face of our people."

At the reunion of Confederate vettrans in June our President said:

"The solemn lines of young men going all over the Union to places of registration ought to be a signal to the world, to those who flout the dignity and honor and rights of the United States, that all her manhood will flock to that standard under which we all delight to serve and that he who challenges the rights and principles of the United States challenges the united strength and devotion of a nation."

The President in his war message to Congress said:

"Our object is to vindicate the principles of peace and justice in the life of the world as against selfish and autocratic power and to set up among the really free and self-governed peoples of the world such a concert of purpose and of action as will henceforth insure the observance of these principles.

"There is one choice we cannot make, we are incapable of making; we will not choose the path of submission and suffer the most sacred rights of our nation and our people to be violated. The wrongs against which we now array ourselves are no common wrongs; they cut to the very roots of human life."

At Gettysburg President Lincoln said:

"It is for us, the living, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who have fought have thus far so nobly advanced. It is for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from the honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion—that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain—that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth."

4. The Battle Hymn of the Republic.

(Unison singing of fourth and fifth stanzas—all standing.)

Fourth—

"He has sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat;
He is sifting out the hearts of men before His judgment seat.
O be swift, my soul, to answer Him; be jubilant, my feet;
Our God is marching on."

(Chorus.)

Fifth—

"In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea,
With a glory in His bosom that transfigures you and me,
As he died to make men holy, let us die to make men free,
While God is marching on."

(Chorus.)

5. Adjournment.

PERSHING COMMENDS RED CROSS

The Red Cross commission to France, of which Major Grayson M. P. Murphy is head, has received the following letter from Adjutant General Benjamin Alsord of General Pershing's staff:

"Our army is keeping a war diary which is to be the official record of the war here. I have received an official communication from the commander-in-chief of the American expeditionary forces reading as follows:

"'It is well to place on record the attitude of the management of the American Red Cross in France. From the beginning they have simply wanted to know what they could do to assist in the great work before the army. The gentlemen at the head of the American Red Cross in France are men of great experience in handling large affairs in the United States, and they have exhibited wonderful resources in accomplishing everything they have been asked to do.'

"A copy of this letter has been forwarded to the War Department for transmission to the headquarters of the American Red Cross, by command of Major General Pershing. Signed, Benj. Alsord, Adjutant General."

The Maxwell actually earns a profit for you.

Webster defines profit as follows:

An automobile saves your time and energy.

And a Maxwell motor car accomplishes that saving on an outlay of only $2 a week to run the car.

We know of no more profitable method of investing $2 a week.

PATRIOTS OF THE GARDEN

The patriots who are planting back yard vegetable gardens are advised by the Committee on Resources and Food Supply of the State Council of Defense to supply themselves with a pamphlet on "City Winter Gardening," written by Stanley S. Rogers, associate professor of olericulture in the University of California, just published by the university and obtainable free by writing to the College of Agriculture at Berkeley.

Californians have a great climatic advantage, since they can maintain a profitable vegetable garden the whole year through. For winter crops a vegetable garden will be more satisfactory if it is located on rich, light, well drained soil, with a southern exposure, level enough to permit irrigation, and not shaded.

The beginner does well to ask some experienced neighbor what crops grow best under local conditions. If the soil has already been under cultivation for summer gardening, all that is necessary is to apply well rotted manure and prepare the land. If the rains come early enough so that the land can be properly prepared in November, artichokes, cabbage, radishes, onions, peas, lettuce, rhubarb or spinach may be planted that month. Cabbage and peas are especially suited to planting in November. Vacant lots not recently under cultivation should be plowed or spaded at least two months before the planting begins, so that the soil may be softened by the early rains and moisture stored. The soil should be thoroughly worked just before planting.
